

UKONS Annual Conference 2008

'Inspiring Cancer Nursing'

19th September 2008, Central Hall, Westminster, London

Programme

Theme 1 Enhancing supportive care Robert Perks Room
Theme 2 Chemotherapy for the 21st Century Lecture Hall
Theme 3 Advancing cancer nursing practice George Thomas Room

Time	Session
09.30–10.00	Registration and refreshments
10.00–10.05	Chair's welcome and opening remarks Annie Young , UKONS President
10.05–10.35	Keynote address nursing-sensitive patient outcomes Professor Diane Doran , Lawrence S Bloomberg Professor in Patient Safety, University of Toronto
10.35–11.05	Nurses as key players Professor Mike Richards , National Cancer Director
	Enhancing supportive care Chair: Dr Debbie Fenlon UKONS Board Member	Chemotherapy for the 21st Century Chair: Cheryl Vidall UKONS Secretary	Advancing cancer nursing practice Chair: Paul Trevatt UKONS Membership Secretary
11.05–11.35	Defining supportive care—what are the boundaries and challenges to practice? Professor Davina Porock Professor of Nursing Practice, Nottingham University	National Chemotherapy Advisory Group (NCAG)—an update Elaine Lennan Consultant Nurse, Southampton University Hospitals NHS Trust	Excellence in practice—demonstrating the value of the clinical nurse specialist Dr Alison Leary Lecturer in Oncology, University College London Hospital
11.40–12.20	Optimising the management of CINV: a nursing perspective Industry sponsored symposium Merck Sharp and Dohme	Nursing management approaches with a new targeted therapy for ErbB2-positive breast cancer Industry sponsored symposium GlaxoSmithKline	Balancing acute and chronic chemotherapy side effects with adjuvant breast cancer chemotherapy regimens Industry sponsored symposium sanofi-aventis
12.20–13.20	Lunch
13.20–13.55	UKONS annual general meeting
	Chair: Natalie Doyle Nurse Consultant, Cancer Rehab, Royal Marsden Hospital	Chair: Sue Hawkett Nursing Advisor/Team Leader, Supportive and Palliative Care, Department of Health	Chair: Professor Diane Doran Lawrence S Bloomberg Professor in Patient Safety, University of Toronto
14.00–14.30	A randomised trial of a supportive home-care nursing intervention to manage symptoms in patients receiving oral chemotherapy Professor Alex Molassiotis Professor of Cancer & Supportive Care, University of Manchester	Chemotherapy in the community Melanie Hall Nurse Consultant, Cancer Services, City Hospitals Sunderland NHS Foundation Trust & Ed Pace Clinical Nurse Specialist-Chemotherapy, Plymouth Hospitals	Specialist/advanced practice: development of a capability framework Maggie Grundy Programme Director, Cancer Care, NHS Education for Scotland
14.35–15.05	Management of insomnia in cancer patients using CBT Dr Leanne Fleming Senior Research Fellow, University of Glasgow	The role of the chemo navigator Rosie Roberts Chemotherapy Clinical Lead, Velindre Cancer Centre	Has the specialist nurse left the building? Val Aston Professional Development Manager, Cancer Care Cymru & Claire Garman Neuro Oncology Specialist Nurse, Cancer Care Cymru
15.05–15.25	Tea and coffee break
15.30–16.00	Supportive and palliative care—distinct or part of a continuum? Dr Sue Duke Consultant Practitioner/Senior Lecturer in Cancer and Palliative Care, University of Southampton	Venous access devices—managing common problems Lisa Schulmeister Oncology Nursing Consultant, Louisiana, USA	Is blood thicker than water?—issues for donors Susan Piggott CNS: Bone Marrow Transplant Coordinator, Northern Ireland Cancer Centre
16.00–16.25	Cancer nurse awards presentation
16.25–16.30	Summary and meeting close		